

Megatrends in New Zealand

October 2023

Table of Contents

Scope

The drivers shaping consumer behaviour

Megatrends framework

Businesses harness megatrends to renovate, innovate and disrupt

Convenience

Jess's Underground Kitchen brings consumers healthier ready meals

Tech is used to simplify everyday tasks

Consumers seek more flexibility in all areas of life

Shoppers want to see before they buy

Young people see cooking as a chore

Digital living

AI-driven app helps to identify all types of New Zealand flora and fauna

Video gaming is a favourite pastime among young Kiwis

Consumers are protective of their personal data

Millennials are the most likely to want online anonymity

Friends and family remain the most trusted information source

Fewer than a quarter of Kiwis expect more face-to-face activity in future

Diversity and inclusion

Lenovo promotes digital inclusion with launch of bilingual Te Reo Maori keyboard

Millennials want to change the world for the better

Most New Zealanders feel comfortable expressing their identity

Gen Z are most likely to support purpose-driven companies

Experience more

New Zealand developer unveils world's first ChatGPT-enabled "digital twin"

Kiwis enjoy socialising both online and offline

Relaxation and safety are key priorities in a holiday destination

Consumers still more likely to value real world than online experiences

Personalisation

MEGATRENDS IN NEW ZEALAND

Australian vitamin subscription service Vitable arrives in New Zealand

Millennials are the most enthusiastic about virtual activities

Younger cohorts are the most individualistic

Premiumisation

The New Zealand Natural Pet Food Co adds to WOOF range of premium dog treats

New Zealanders want a simpler life

Millennials are the most confident about their investments

Animal welfare is a key concern among Kiwis

Pursuit of value

Government's "Find Money in Weird Places" campaign aims to slash household energy bills

Older generations are the most frugal

Most are worried about the rising cost of living

New Zealanders have embraced the circular economy

Shoppers seek ways to help make their money go further

Shopper reinvented

Countdown supermarkets modernised, rebranded as Woolworths

New Zealanders are less enthusiastic about tailored experiences than their global peers

S-commerce gains traction as part of the omnichannel experience

Younger cohorts have the most interaction with brands

Sustainable living

ABB wins Global Water Award for its innovative water management solutions

Most consumers are worried about global warming

Mindful consumption is on the rise

Reducing food waste tops the list of green activities

Wellness

Nymbbl Science collaborates with ACC to provide balance training for seniors

Meditation and massage are the principal antidotes to stress

New Zealanders exercise more than the global average

Consumers remain wary of health and safety when out and about

Leverage the power of megatrends to shape your strategy today

About Euromonitor International

Euromonitor International is an independent market intelligence provider. Data, insight and analysis stem from in-the-field research spanning 210 national markets.

Content ranges from the in-depth and country-specific, to key strategic themes with a global range and significance. Products cover a comprehensive range of insights and market data, but can be broadly categorised as:

- Strategy Briefings: Global or regional in scope, and focussing on the most important themes shaping consumer demand, the key markets, competitive environment and future outlook across a range of industries.
- Company Profiles: Analysis dedicated to the world's most significant companies, with detailed insight into their activities, focus of operations, their competitors, their geographic presence and performance.
- Country Reports: For an in-depth understanding of specific countries, whether by industry, economic metrics or consumer trends and lifestyles. These reports cover current trends, consumer demand, market potential and future prospects, with country-specific local insight and comprehensive data, unavailable elsewhere.

For more information on this report, further enquiries can be directed via this link www.euromonitor.com/megatrends-in-new-zealand/report.