Key trends impacting the chicken market in 2022

GLOBAL SUPPLY OF CHICKEN

Asia Pacific to remain a major poultry producer

Chicken prices on the rise fuelled by soaring input costs and solid demand

Quarterly price analysis table

The US and China continue to dominate global production of poultry

China sees the largest growth in poultry output in absolute terms over the past five years

The US: Broiler output to grow, yet producers continue to face headwinds

China: Near-term outlook clouded by COVID-19 restrictions and falling yellow-feather output

Brazil: Chicken output to increase driven by growing foreign demand

GLOBAL CONSUMPTION OF MEAT AND MEAT PRODUCTS

High demand from its vast population makes China the largest market for meat

China: Slower economic growth and COVID-19 restrictions to limit chicken consumption

The US: Chicken consumption to remain robust, due to its nutrition, value and versatility

Russia: Consumption of meat to be dragged down by plunging consumer incomes

Recovering foodservice sector contributes to growth in global chicken demand

Restaurants and bars: Recovering social activities to support the sector's demand for chicken

Coffee, tea, spices and ready meals: Industry turnover growth to slow down

Hospitals, medical and dental services: Sector expansion to support demand for poultry

Public administration, defence and social security: Sector to witness steady future growth
