

South Korea: Consumer Profile

May 2023

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION

Scope

Key drivers affecting consumers in South Korea in 2022

How developments today shape the consumer of tomorrow

Key findings

POPULATION AND SOCIETY

Today 2022: The growth of the South Korean population remains stagnant

As birth rates plummet, immigrant influx remains crucial for population growth

South Korean consumers exhibit less enthusiasm to engage through online platforms

Tomorrow 2040: Longer life expectancy and low birth rates boost older cohort

Generation X and millennials will remain the most crucial consumer groups

South Korea's cities no longer grow due to population decline

Areas of opportunity

One Day Chocolate tablet offers snack alternative for health-conscious South Koreans

HOUSEHOLDS AND HOMES

Today 2022: Higher prevalence of renting due to over one third of households being single

Average dwelling size to increase despite fewer people per household

Benefiting from free subway tickets, baby boomers strive to live near public transport

Tomorrow 2040: Declining families with children, rising older single South Koreans

Over half of households to have aged 60+ decision-makers by 2040

South Korea's ICT leadership fuels instant adoption of smart devices

Areas of opportunity

Yuhan -Kimberly empowering women leaders in South Korea

INCOME AND EXPENDITURE

Today 2022: Growing income and stronger spending in higher income bands

Energy support and vouchers mitigate inflationary impact on households

Expenditure on health and wellness expected to increase among all cohorts

Tomorrow 2040: Significantly higher share of middle-class individuals compared to global

Senior population will continue to dominate the top-income band by 2040

Seoul to remain South Korea's largest consumer market

Areas of opportunity

Traditionally considered a budget-friendly option, Soju emerges as a premium alternative

LIFESTYLES

Key findings from consumer survey

Younger generations have a more positive outlook on their future

Despite higher savings and less debt, South Koreans remain worried about finances

Generation Z and millennials to stand up against South Korea's rigid work culture

South Koreans seek bargains but also demand strong brands that emphasise high social status

Worried about climate change, South Koreans continue to lead in terms of waste recycling

LIFESTYLES

PURITO: Korean beauty brand with sustainability at its core

Areas of opportunity

CONCLUSION

Key takeaways

Euromonitor International is an independent market intelligence provider. Data, insight and analysis stem from in-the-field research spanning 210 national markets.

Content ranges from the in-depth and country-specific, to key strategic themes with a global range and significance. Products cover a comprehensive range of insights and market data, but can be broadly categorised as:

- Strategy Briefings: Global or regional in scope, and focussing on the most important themes shaping consumer demand, the key markets, competitive environment and future outlook across a range of industries.
- Company Profiles: Analysis dedicated to the world's most significant companies, with detailed insight into their activities, focus of operations, their competitors, their geographic presence and performance.
- Country Reports: For an in-depth understanding of specific countries, whether by industry, economic metrics or consumer trends and lifestyles. These reports cover current trends, consumer demand, market potential and future prospects, with country-specific local insight and comprehensive data, unavailable elsewhere.

For more information on this report, further enquiries can be directed via this link www.euromonitor.com/south-korea-consumer-profile/report.