Euromonitor International

Denmark: Consumer Profile

September 2026

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION

Scope
Key findings
Key drivers affecting consumers in Denmark in 2025
How developments today shape consumer of tomorrow

POPULATION AND SOCIETY

Today 2025: Population growth is increasingly reliant on migration
Denmark's population is ageing as birth rates fall and Danes live longer
High cholesterol is a key health risk factor for Danes
Tomorrow 2040: Old-age dependency set to rise in line with increasing life expectancy
Gen Z set to become the biggest influence on the market by 2040
Copenhagen is expected to remain the central economic force in Denmark
Opportunities for growth
Case study: Nuori launches bio-active facial cream

HOUSEHOLDS AND HOMES

Today 2025: Fewer couples having children as priorities change
Single person households on the rise as the population ages
Housing costs expected to continue rising
Tomorrow 2040: Danish households will remain among the most affluent in Europe
Businesses can benefit from targeting older household heads and women
Danish households are well connected
Opportunities for growth
Case study: Salling Group A/S aims to meet the evolving needs of Danish households

INCOME AND EXPENDITURE

Today 2025: Disposable income rises despite an increase in unemployment
Most Danes are concerned that the cost of living is going up
Baby boomers are the big spenders against a backdrop of economic uncertainty
Tomorrow 2040: Urban-rural income gap set to widen
Wealth is set to accumulate among middle-aged and older consumers
Copenhagen to remain the central economic force as expenditure rises
Opportunities for growth
Case study: Swedish fast-fashion retailer Lindex opens first store in Denmark in 2025

LIFESTYLES

Key findings consumer survey
Healthy, organic and quality products encourage Danes to spend more
Nearly two-thirds of Danes remain concerned about rising prices
Environmental concerns are rising but remain below global averages
Confidence remains solid with many consumers in a position to save
Danes prioritise a strong work-life balance
Opportunities for growth
Case study: MobilePay helping to make Denmark a cashless society

CONCLUSION

Key takeaways

About Euromonitor International

Euromonitor International is an independent market intelligence provider. Data, insight and analysis stem from in-the-field research spanning 210 national markets.

Content ranges from the in-depth and country-specific, to key strategic themes with a global range and significance. Products cover a comprehensive range of insights and market data, but can be broadly categorised as:

- Strategy Briefings: Global or regional in scope, and focussing on the most important themes shaping consumer demand, the key markets, competitive environment and future outlook across a range of industries.
- Company Profiles: Analysis dedicated to the world's most significant companies, with detailed insight into their activities, focus of operations, their competitors, their geographic presence and performance.
- Country Reports: For an in-depth understanding of specific countries, whether by industry, economic metrics or consumer trends and lifestyles. These reports cover current trends, consumer demand, market potential and future prospects, with country-specific local insight and comprehensive data, unavailable elsewhere.

For more information on this report, further enquiries can be directed via this link www.euromonitor.com/denmark-consumer-profile/report.