Megatrends: Sharing Economy - Capitalising on Shared Mobility’s Future Growth

March 2022

Table of Contents
INTRODUCTION

Scope
Key findings: Market overview
Key findings: Opportunities (1)
Key findings: Opportunities (2)
Key findings: Risks and Challenges
Sharing Economy: One of the major forces shaping consumers and businesses Shared Mobility: What is driving the industry?
Shared mobility to be a half trillion US dollar market by 2040
Asia Pacific to capture more than 50% of the shared mobility market by 2040
Ride hailing controls the shared mobility market
China to top the shared mobility market as emerging and developing nations dominate Southeast Asian economies to deliver the best prospects for shared mobility growth
Scooter and bicycle sharing to surge amid shift to micromobility
Some automotive firms are tapping into shared mobility’s growth
Renault’s new business unit, Mobilize, shifts focus to shared and electric mobility
Striking partnerships with public and private entities can build B2B and B2G revenues
Case study: Bird teams up with Nashville public transit system to deploy scooters
Ola Corporate offers solution to employee travel
Shared mobility’s electrification to offer opportunities for EV and battery producers
Ample partners with ride hailing provider, Sally, to offer swappable batteries
Lime putting focus on e-bikes after introducing new swappable battery models
Digital payments firms to see large opportunities in partnering with shared mobility players
VOI partners with Google Pay and Apple Pay to provide hassle-free payments
Brand awareness can foster diversification opportunities to add new revenue streams
SafeBoda pivots to other services amid a COVID-19-induced slump in mobility
Emerging markets provide opportunities for sophisticated shared mobility solutions
Bolt’s foray into Africa to deliver efficient mobility services
Safety and monitoring features for micromobility open new opportunities
Superpedestrian unveils new safety features for its e-scooters
Autonomous vehicles the next frontier of opportunities for shared mobility
Baidu Inc and Pony.ai partner to deploy paid robo-taxi service in Beijing
Profitability issues can derail shared mobility growth
Strict regulations can discourage shared mobility firms from investing
The COVID-19 pandemic uncovered the weakness of shared mobility
Shared mobility can aggravate congestion and many consumers prefer ownership
Shared mobility: Key points to reflect on for firms
Shared mobility: Identifying the winners and losers in a fast-growing industry
Navigating shared mobility’s strategic and tactical growth paths
Summing up: Shared mobility a dynamic industry full of opportunities and challenges

About Euromonitor International

Euromonitor International is an independent market intelligence provider. Data, insight and analysis stem from in-the-field research spanning 210 national markets.

Content ranges from the in-depth and country-specific, to key strategic themes with a global range and significance. Products cover a comprehensive range of insights and market data, but can be broadly categorised as:

- Strategy Briefings: Global or regional in scope, and focussing on the most important themes shaping consumer demand, the key markets, competitive environment and future outlook across a range of industries.
- Company Profiles: Analysis dedicated to the world’s most significant companies, with detailed insight into their activities, focus of operations, their competitors, their geographic presence and performance.

- Country Reports: For an in-depth understanding of specific countries, whether by industry, economic metrics or consumer trends and lifestyles. These reports cover current trends, consumer demand, market potential and future prospects, with country-specific local insight and comprehensive data, unavailable elsewhere.

For more information on this report, further enquiries can be directed via this link www.euromonitor.com/megatrends-sharing-economy-capitalising-on-shared-mobilitys-future-growth/report.